

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Corey Isiah McNair

Whereas, the National Congress of Black Women Inc., Trenton Chapter, presents its 29th Annual Spring Luncheon on April 29, 2018, to honor local residents who have committed their lives to the enrichment of their communities through professional achievement and community service; and

Whereas, among those honored is Corey Isiah McNair, a Trenton native and civil servant who graduated from Jersey City University and worked as a case manager and youth development specialist within the Trenton public schools; and

Whereas, Corey Isiah McNair served as a mental health professional as a Campus Coordinator at an in-patient children's psychiatric hospital, and after earning a Master of Arts degree at Rider University, which equipped him with the education and skills to ignite change, became a Senior Correctional Officer with the New Jersey Department of Corrections; and

Whereas, Corey Isiah McNair currently serves the City of Trenton as a Police Officer and was recently admitted into the Educational Doctorate Program in Educational Leadership with a focus on Higher Education Administration at Rowan University in Glassboro, NJ,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Corey Isiah McNair on this well-deserved honor and thank him heartily for his example to the citizens of Mercer County.
