

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing George A. Fallat, PE

Whereas, the American Society of Civil Engineers, Central Jersey Branch hosts its Annual Awards Dinner on October 16, 2018; and

Whereas, the American Society of Civil Engineers promotes the highest standards of workmanship, cooperation, and ingenuity in all professional endeavors; and

Whereas, the American Society of Civil Engineers, Central Jersey Branch bestows the Engineer of the Year Award on a civil engineer who embodies the highest level of dedication to the art of engineering and to serving his/her community; and

Whereas, George A. Fallat, PE, County Engineer for the County of Mercer, receives the Engineer of the Year Award for 2018; and

Whereas, George A. Fallat, PE, has served the County for 14 years, first as traffic engineer before stepping into the role of Acting County Engineer and serving with exemplary dedication until officially becoming County Engineer; and

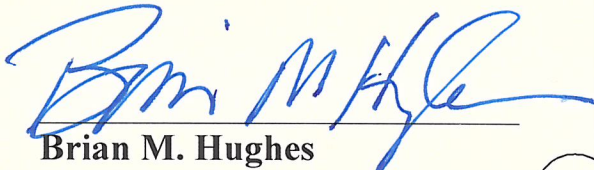

Whereas, George A. Fallat, PE, has taught graduate level transportation engineering courses for the New Jersey Institute of Technology and is an adjunct at Rutgers University; and

Whereas, George A. Fallat, PE has consistently helped the County of Mercer to find elegant and cost-effective solutions to vexing transportation and roadway safety problems,

Whereas, George A. Fallat, PE has demonstrated outstanding professionalism, commitment, and creativity in all of his work with the County,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate George A. Fallat, PE, on his receipt of this award, and thank him for his phenomenal service to the people of Mercer County.

Brian M. Hughes
County Executive