

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Susan Hoskins

Whereas, the County of Mercer celebrates the retirement of individuals who dedicate themselves to making a positive difference in the lives of members of the community; and

Whereas, Susan Hoskins recently retired as Executive Director of the Princeton Senior Resource Center after having served in that capacity since 2002; and

Whereas, Susan Hoskins marks her retirement with friends, family, and colleagues at a special celebration in her honor on January 27, 2019; and

Whereas, Susan Hoskins has overseen dramatic growth in participation at the Princeton Senior Resource Center, and has developed it into a model resource center that is known for such innovative programs and services as GrandPals, Engaged Retirement, Evergreen Forum, and Partners-in-Caring; and

Whereas, Susan Hoskins has led the way to Princeton being one of only two municipalities in New Jersey that funds the majority of its expenses for senior programs privately, instead of at taxpayer expense, and as a result of her efforts Princeton in 2014 was named the first "Age Friendly Community" in New Jersey; and

Whereas, Susan Hoskins has served as a leader, mentor, and friend to people in Princeton and throughout Mercer County, earning her wide respect and admiration,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby commend Susan Hoskins for her many years of outstanding service to Mercer County residents, and congratulate her heartily on her retirement.

Brian M. Hughes
County Executive