Recognizing Volunteer of the Year Susan Stahley

Whereas, the Mercer County Municipal Alliance of the New Jersey Governor's Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse seeks to honor its volunteers at its 17th Annual Volunteer Recognition Ceremony on Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at Mercer Oaks in West Windsor Township; and

Whereas, the Municipal Alliance and its members are the first line of defense in the fight to prevent the diseases of alcoholism and drug addiction among Mercer County residents, especially youth; and

Whereas, each year the Municipal Alliance honors the volunteers it relies on to educate the Mercer County community about dangers related to alcohol and drug abuse; and

Whereas, this year the Municipal Alliance honors Susan Stahley, a member of the Lawrence Alcohol and Drug Alliance, as its Volunteer of the Year; and

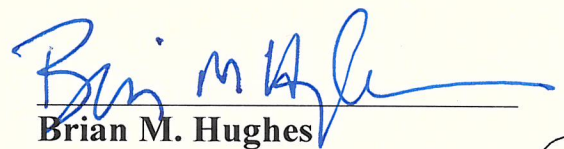

Whereas, Susan Stahley brings many years of professional prevention experience to the Alliance, where she assists the Lawrence Alliance Coordinator with many Alliance activities, offering expertise on drug and alcohol prevention and education; and

Whereas, Susan Stahley is committed to educating the community about the risks of drug and alcohol abuse, and is a dedicated volunteer for numerous organizations including the Prevention Coalition of Mercer County, Womanspace, and the Bucks County Playhouse; and

Whereas, Susan Stahley is the Alcohol/Drug & Sexual Assault Prevention Education Coordinator at Rider University, where she provides a variety of creative educational programs to reduce alcohol/drug usage, including events such as OctSOBERfest, LaLaNoBooza, Residence Life Programs, the Annual Student Health Fair, and The Rider Prize Ride,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Susan Stahley on receiving the Municipal Alliance Volunteer of the Year Award, and thank her for her tireless work as an Alliance member, a mentor and an inspiration for local youth and the residents of the Mercer County community.
