

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Minister Kyle Sanders

Whereas, the National Congress of Black Women Inc., Trenton Chapter, presents its 30th Annual Spring Luncheon on May 5, 2019, to honor local residents who have committed their lives to the enrichment of their communities through professional achievement and community service; and

Whereas, Minister Kyle Sanders studied Mortuary Science at Mercer County Community College and attends Trinity College of the Bible Theological Seminary School, and is employed at Freedom Mortgage Corporation in Marlton, New Jersey and the Clarence Johnson Jr. Funeral Home in Yeadon, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Minister Kyle Sanders became a licensed Minister in 2015 and can be found feeding the homeless, clothing the naked, caring for the elderly, and visiting nursing homes and hospitals praying for the sick, truly living the life he sings and preaches about, and demonstrating his working obedience to do God's will; and

Whereas, Minister Kyle Sanders has a talent and passion for expression through the power of song that has allowed him to travel and spread the word of the gospel, and his music can be heard up and down the East Coast, keeping the "church sound" alive,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Minister Kyle Sanders on this well-deserved honor and thank him heartily for his example to the citizens of Mercer County.

Brian M. Hughes
County Executive
