Recognizing Jeannine Frisby-LaRue

Whereas, A Better Way Inc. recognizes this year's recipients of the 2019 Trenton Changemaker Awards on June 28th, 2019 at Georgine's Banquet Hall in Bristol, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Trenton Changemaker Awards provide a stage to honor exemplary citizens for their dedication to serving the Greater Trenton community; and

Whereas, Jeannine Frisby-LaRue, founder of the blog LaRuelist Report and Senior Vice President of the Kaufman Zita Group, has spent almost 40 years serving the public on policy, governmental and political issues, and is being honored with the Trenton Changemaker Humanitarian Award; and

Whereas, Jeannine Frisby-LaRue has spent most of her professional life in the fields of labor, health, and education, serving in both public and governmental affairs, and is the founder of the New Jersey Governor's Conference for Women, which for two decades drew more than 2,000 women and men from across the region; and

Whereas, Jeannine Frisby-LaRue developed an ambitious mentoring program in the City of Newark called 10,000 Mentors, which matched more than 500 elementary school children with one-on-one adult mentors to foster independence, citizenship, and productivity in children,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Jeannine Frisby-LaRue on being recognized by A Better Way Inc. with the 2019 Trenton Changemaker Humanitarian Award and thank her for her many contributions to the residents of Trenton and Mercer County.
