

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Zanobia Shaw

Whereas, the Mercer County Commission on the Status of Women hosts its Annual Volunteer Awards Reception on May 11, 2022 to recognize the volunteer work of outstanding women in the Mercer County community; and

Whereas, Zanobia Shaw, a Mercer County resident dedicated to improving our county for others, has been selected for the Young Woman of Achievement Award; and

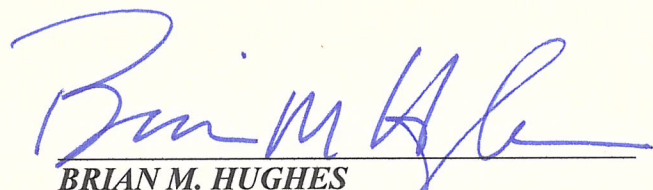

Whereas, Zanobia Shaw is a senior at STEMCivics High School in Ewing and serves as President of her school's National Honor Society while also holding four school records in track as a sprinter and distance runner; and

Whereas, Zanobia Shaw is President and CEO of United Front Inc., a youth organization that focuses on issues young people face such as youth violence, mental health, homelessness, youth incarceration and safe spaces for youth, and also volunteers for Assemblywoman Verlina Reynolds-Jackson and tutors fellow students; and

Whereas, Zanobia Shaw has already acquired nearly 15,000 community service hours, and has been accepted into more than 30 colleges and universities with plans to study business and then attend law school,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Zanobia Shaw on her receipt of the Young Woman of Achievement Award and commend her for the invaluable contributions she makes to Mercer County.
